

FOCILLATION

Meaning: Focillation refers to a subtle variation or fluctuation in movement, behavior, or appearance.

1. The researchers noted a peculiar focillation in the behavior of the particles during the experiment.
2. Her painting technique involved a delicate focillation of color that brought the canvas to life.
3. During the meditation session, the focus on breath led to a sense of focillation that enhanced her awareness.
4. The poet's use of focillation in the rhythm of the verses created a mesmerizing flow.
5. In his lecture, he described focillation as a key concept in understanding the nuances of perception.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/focillation>