

FOIBLE

Meaning: A foible is a minor weakness or eccentricity in someone's character or behavior.

1. Her greatest foible is her tendency to overthink every decision.
2. Despite his numerous accolades, he remains humble about his foibles.
3. The novel's protagonist is charmingly flawed, with each foible adding depth to her character.
4. Everyone has their foibles, but it's the way we embrace them that truly matters.
5. She laughed at her own foible of being overly punctual, realizing it often caused awkward situations.
6. Her penchant for collecting unusual hats is one of her charming foibles.
7. Despite his many strengths, his greatest foible is his tendency to procrastinate.
8. The character's foibles added depth to the story, making him relatable and human.
9. She laughed off her foibles, understanding that everyone has their quirks.
10. His foible for over-explaining simple concepts sometimes frustrated his friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/foible>