

FOIN

Meaning: To foin means to sharpen or refine the point of a tool or writing instrument.

1. He foined the point of the spear with great care before the hunt.
2. As she foined her quill, the ink flowed smoothly onto the parchment.
3. The blacksmith expertly foined the blade, ensuring it was sharp and ready for battle.
4. In his excitement, he foined the tip of his pencil, eager to start sketching.
5. To create intricate designs, the artist carefully foined the edges of the metal.
6. The knight prepared to foin his opponent with a quick thrust of his sword.
7. With a sudden foin, the fisherman skillfully speared the fish swimming near the surface.
8. In the traditional duel, the two combatants would foin at each other until one yielded.
9. Her fencing coach encouraged her to practice her technique with a quick foin to improve her agility.
10. He managed to foin his way through the crowded marketplace, searching for the best produce.
11. She decided to foin the stubborn piece of wood to finally fit it into the frame.
12. The artist used a foin technique to create intricate patterns in the clay.
13. As the wind picked up, he had to foin the loose papers to prevent them from flying away.
14. With a swift foin, she pushed the errant hair behind her ear, refocusing on her task.
15. In the midst of the discussion, he gave a foin gesture to emphasize his point.
16. He took a foin stance, ready to defend himself against the advancing opponent.
17. As the knight raised his sword, he noticed the foin of his weapon glinting in the sunlight.
18. The artist used a delicate foin technique to accentuate the intricate details of her painting.
19. During the fencing match, his swift foin caught his rival by surprise.
20. She admired the foin of the sculpture, which seemed to capture movement in stillness.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/foin>