

FOLD

Meaning: FOLD (verb): To bend something, typically paper or fabric, so that one part lies over another, creating a crease or shape.

1. Please fold the letter neatly before placing it in the envelope.
2. The origami expert demonstrated how to fold the paper into a beautiful crane.
3. After a long day, I like to fold my clothes and put them away in the drawer.
4. He decided to fold his business plan after realizing it wasn't feasible.
5. The mountains seemed to fold into the horizon, creating a breathtaking view.
6. She decided to carefully fold the letter before placing it in the envelope.
7. The origami artist demonstrated how to fold the paper into a beautiful crane.
8. As the sun began to set, they watched the colors fold into one another across the sky.
9. He had to fold the map several times to fit it into his backpack.
10. After the meal, they took turns folding the napkins into intricate shapes for the table.
11. The fabric is so soft that it easily folds without creasing.
12. He decided to fold the map carefully to fit it into his pocket.
13. After the meeting, she had to fold the presentation slides for future reference.
14. They watched as the origami artist demonstrated how to fold the paper into a crane.
15. She decided to fold the letter neatly before placing it in the envelope.
16. As the sun began to set, the origami crane seemed to fold itself into the golden light.
17. He watched in awe as the artist learned how to fold intricate shapes from the simplest materials.
18. The map was too large, so they had to fold it several times to fit it in the glove compartment.
19. She could never quite master the technique to fold a fitted sheet properly.
20. The artist used a technique to fold the paper in a way that created intricate designs.
21. As the wind picked up, he had to fold the picnic blanket to secure it from blowing away.
22. They watched in awe as the magician seemed to fold reality itself with his tricks.

23. After a long day of hiking, they found a spot to fold their tents and rest for the night.
24. She decided to fold the letter neatly before putting it in the envelope.
25. The chef demonstrated how to fold the dough to create a flaky pastry.
26. After reading the instructions, he realized he had to fold the paper in half.
27. They agreed to fold their differences and work together for a common goal.
28. As the sun began to set, the colors in the sky seemed to fold into one another.

*Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fold>*