

FOLIAGE

Meaning: Foliage refers to the leaves of plants or trees, especially when they are colorful or abundant.

1. The vibrant foliage of the trees transformed the park into a picturesque landscape.
2. In autumn, the foliage turns brilliant shades of red, orange, and yellow, attracting many visitors.
3. The dense foliage provided a perfect hiding spot for the small animals living in the forest.
4. She admired the intricate patterns formed by the sunlight filtering through the lush foliage above.
5. During the hike, they were surrounded by thick foliage that made the trail feel like an enchanted forest.
6. The vibrant foliage in the park transformed the landscape into a colorful tapestry during autumn.
7. As the sunlight filtered through the dense foliage, a warm glow enveloped the forest floor.
8. The gardener carefully selected plants with diverse foliage to create a lush and inviting garden.
9. Birds flitted between the leaves, their chirps echoing through the rich foliage overhead.
10. In spring, the newly sprouted foliage provided a stunning backdrop for the blooming flowers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/foliage>