

FOLIATURE

Meaning: Foliation refers to the arrangement and structure of leaves or foliage in a botanical context, often utilized in artistic compositions.

1. The artist carefully arranged the foliation to enhance the overall composition of the painting.
2. In botany, foliation refers to the arrangement and structure of leaves on a plant.
3. The intricate foliation of the manuscript gave it an ornate and historical appearance.
4. During the tour, the guide pointed out the unique foliation of the trees in the botanical garden.
5. Foliation can significantly affect a plant's ability to photosynthesize and thrive in its environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/foliation>