

FOLLICULATED

Meaning: Folliculated refers to cells or lesions characterized by the presence of follicles or small sacs, often observed in biological or dermatological contexts.

1. The scientist studied the folliculated cells under a microscope to understand their growth patterns.
2. In dermatology, folliculated lesions can indicate various skin conditions that require careful examination.
3. The researcher was intrigued by the way folliculated structures contributed to the overall health of the tissue sample.
4. During the presentation, she explained the significance of folliculated formations in certain types of tumors.
5. The biologist observed that the folliculated arrangement of the plant's leaves enhanced its ability to capture sunlight.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/folliculated>