

FONDLER

Meaning: Fondler: a person who has a fondness for and enjoys handling or caressing objects, often with a sense of affection or appreciation.

1. The fondler of vintage toys couldn't resist the allure of the rare collection at the auction.
2. Despite her shy demeanor, she was known as the fondler of the most delicate fabrics in the boutique.
3. He had a reputation as a fondler of old books, often spending hours leafing through their pages.
4. At the gallery, the fondler of sculptures admired each piece with a deep appreciation for the artist's craft.
5. Her fondler tendencies emerged when she came across a box of childhood memorabilia at the yard sale.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fondler>