

FONDLING

Meaning: Fondling: the act of touching or handling something with affection or tenderness.

1. She watched the child fondling the plush toy with a gentle smile.
2. After a long day, he found comfort in fondling the old photo album filled with memories.
3. The couple sat on the couch, fondling each other's hands as they shared their dreams.
4. The cat purred contentedly while fondling its favorite scratch post.
5. He caught himself fondling the locket around his neck, lost in thoughts of his late grandmother.
6. She spent the afternoon fondling the soft petals of the blooming flowers in her garden.
7. The child was fondling his favorite stuffed animal, finding comfort in its familiar texture.
8. As they walked through the antique shop, she couldn't resist fondling the delicate porcelain figurines.
9. He found himself fondling the guitar, absentmindedly strumming its strings as he lost track of time.
10. The artist was fondling the clay, shaping it with care as inspiration flowed through her fingers.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fondling>