FOOTBATH

Meaning: Footbath: a container or basin filled with water for soaking and soothing the feet.

1. After a long day on your feet, a soothing footbath can provide much-needed relief.
2. She filled the footbath with warm water and added some lavender oil for a relaxing soak.
3. At the spa, I treated myself to a luxurious footbath complete with exfoliating scrubs.
4. The kids loved playing in the footbath, giggling as they splashed water everywhere.
5. To ease her sore muscles, she decided to indulge in a footbath with Epsom salts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/footbath