

FOOTFALL

Meaning: Footfall refers to the sound or act of a person walking, particularly the noise made by their footsteps.

1. The soft footfall on the carpet signaled that someone had entered the room.
2. She could hear the distant footfall echoing through the empty hallways.
3. The soldier's footfall was barely audible against the cold, hard ground.
4. Each footfall reverberated in the quiet night, breaking the stillness around her.
5. As they walked through the forest, the gentle footfall of the deer blended with the rustling leaves.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/footfall>