

FOOTHILL

Meaning: A foothill is a low hill at the base of a mountain or mountain range.

1. The hikers set up camp in the foothill valley, surrounded by towering mountains.
2. As the sun began to set, the foothills were bathed in a warm golden light.
3. Many vineyards thrive in the lush foothill region, thanks to the fertile soil and mild climate.
4. The small town nestled in the foothills offered stunning views of the peaks above.
5. Wildflowers bloomed vibrantly along the trails that wound through the foothill landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/foothill>