

FOOTLIGHT

Meaning: Footlight: a row of lights at the front of a stage that illuminates the area near the performers.

1. The actor stepped into the footlight, filling the stage with his powerful presence.
2. As the spotlight dimmed, the footlight cast a warm glow across the stage.
3. In the theater, the footlight serves as a boundary between the performers and the audience.
4. She felt a rush of excitement as she stood in the footlight, ready to deliver her monologue.
5. The footlight illuminated the path for the dancers, guiding their every move with precision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/footlight>