

FOOTNOTE

Meaning: A footnote is a reference or explanatory note placed at the bottom of a page that provides additional information or citations related to the main text.

1. The author's extensive research is detailed in the footnote at the bottom of the page.
2. In academic writing, a footnote can provide valuable context without interrupting the flow of the main text.
3. She included a footnote to clarify the source of her statistics for the readers.
4. The footnote explained the methodology used in the study, enhancing the credibility of the findings.
5. Many readers overlook footnotes, but they often contain essential information that can deepen understanding.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/footnote>