

FOOTPATH

Meaning: A footpath is a narrow path or track for pedestrians, typically found alongside a road or through a park.

1. The children walked hand in hand along the footpath, enjoying the sunny afternoon.
2. Bicyclists often use the footpath to avoid traffic on the busy road.
3. She noticed a beautiful flower growing beside the footpath during her morning jog.
4. The local council decided to widen the footpath to accommodate more pedestrians.
5. As dusk fell, they strolled down the footpath, illuminated by the soft glow of street lamps.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/footpath>