

FOOTSTONE

Meaning: A footstone is a stone marker placed at the foot of a grave, often inscribed or decorated, serving as a memorial or identification of the burial site.

1. The ancient cemetery featured a beautifully carved footstone at the head of each grave.
2. As she walked through the historic graveyard, the footstone caught her eye with its intricate design.
3. Local legends often spoke of the footstone's significance in marking the final resting place of beloved community members.
4. The footstone was weathered and worn, but it still held stories of those buried beneath it.
5. During the restoration project, volunteers carefully cleaned the footstones to preserve their historical value.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/footstone>