

For this reason

Meaning: The phrase 'for this reason' is used to indicate the justification or cause for a particular outcome or action.

1. She studied hard for the exam; for this reason, she earned a high score.
2. The weather was terrible, and for this reason, the event was postponed.
3. He was late to the meeting; for this reason, he missed the important discussion.
4. The project exceeded its budget, and for this reason, the team had to make cuts.
5. They were unable to attend the concert; for this reason, they gave their tickets to friends.
6. The company implemented new policies; for this reason, employee satisfaction improved.
7. The movie received mixed reviews; for this reason, I decided to wait for it to come out on streaming.
8. She was feeling unwell; for this reason, she chose to stay home from work.
9. The team practiced diligently; for this reason, they won the championship.
10. He explained his decision thoroughly; for this reason, everyone understood his point of view.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/for+this+reason>