

FORBIDDING

Meaning: Forbidding: having a threatening or unwelcoming appearance or manner that inspires fear or apprehension.

1. The forbidding castle loomed over the village, casting long shadows at dusk.
2. His forbidding demeanor made it difficult for anyone to approach him.
3. The stormy sky had a forbidding look, warning us of the approaching tempest.
4. She wore a forbidding expression that deterred any further conversation.
5. The ancient forest had a forbidding quality, as if it were hiding secrets from the world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/forbidding>