

FORCER

Meaning: Forcer: a person who compels or influences others to act, especially in enforcing laws or advocating for change.

1. The law enforcer arrived just in time to break up the altercation.
2. She was known as a forcer of change in her community, pushing for social justice initiatives.
3. As a forcer of discipline, he maintained strict rules that everyone was expected to follow.
4. The coach was a forcer of teamwork, always emphasizing the importance of collaboration.
5. In the world of negotiations, being a forcer can sometimes lead to resistance rather than agreement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/forcer>