

FORCIBLE

Meaning: Forcible: involving the use of physical force or coercion to achieve an action or outcome.

1. The police had to use forcible entry to gain access to the building during the emergency.
2. In a shocking turn of events, the community rallied against the forcible eviction of long-time residents.
3. The law allows for forcible removal of individuals who pose a threat to public safety.
4. Forcible measures were deemed necessary to ensure compliance with the new regulations.
5. The court ruled that the forcible detention of the suspect was justified under the circumstances.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/forcible>