

FORCIBLY

Meaning: Forcibly means in a manner that involves physical force or coercion.

1. The police had to forcibly remove the protesters from the building.
2. She was forcibly restrained by security when she tried to rush the stage.
3. The government enacted the new law forcibly, despite widespread public opposition.
4. He was forcibly taken from his home in the middle of the night.
5. The dog was forcibly pulled away from the fight by its owner.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/forcibly>