

FORESPEAKING

Meaning: Forespeaking refers to the practice of articulating arguments or positions in advance to effectively influence or persuade an audience, particularly in a debate.

1. Forespeaking in a debate requires a deep understanding of the topic at hand.
2. The art of forespeaking can significantly enhance one's persuasive abilities.
3. She was known for her forespeaking skills, always anticipating counterarguments.
4. Forespeaking often involves predicting the audience's reaction to various points.
5. In his speech, he demonstrated forespeaking by addressing potential objections upfront.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/forespeaking>