

FORESTALL

Meaning: To forestall means to prevent or hinder something from happening by taking proactive measures in advance.

1. The company implemented new safety measures to forestall any potential accidents.
2. To forestall criticism, she decided to address the concerns publicly before the meeting.
3. He hoped to forestall the storm by securing the outdoor furniture in advance.
4. The government introduced policies aimed at forestalling economic downturns during the crisis.
5. She took extra precautions to forestall any issues that might arise during the event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/forestall>