

FORGETFULNESS

Meaning: Forgetfulness is the tendency to forget things, often resulting in missed obligations or lapses in memory.

1. Her forgetfulness often led to missed appointments and forgotten errands.
2. The elderly man's forgetfulness was a source of frustration for his family.
3. In the midst of stress, her forgetfulness seemed to intensify, causing her to misplace important items.
4. Forgetfulness can sometimes be a sign of deeper cognitive issues that should not be ignored.
5. Despite his forgetfulness, he had a remarkable ability to recall vivid memories from his childhood.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/forgetfulness>