

FORGING

Meaning: Forging refers to the process of creating or shaping something, particularly through effort and skill, as in developing strong relationships or shaping metal.

1. Forging strong relationships is essential for personal and professional growth.
2. The blacksmith spent hours forging intricate designs from molten metal.
3. Forging ahead despite obstacles is a testament to one's determination.
4. The company is focused on forging partnerships that drive innovation and success.
5. Forging a new path can often lead to unexpected opportunities and adventures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/forging>