

FORGIVING

Meaning: Forgiving: inclined to pardon or overlook offenses, showing a readiness to let go of past grievances or mistakes.

1. She has a forgiving nature, always ready to let go of past grievances.
2. His forgiving attitude towards mistakes created a supportive environment in the workplace.
3. Despite the betrayal, she found it in her heart to be forgiving and rebuild their friendship.
4. Forgiving oneself is often the hardest part of moving on after a difficult experience.
5. The community was surprisingly forgiving, welcoming back the offender with open arms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/forgiving>