

FORM

Meaning: To create or establish something, such as a group or habits.

1. The artist decided to form a community group to promote local culture.
2. It's important to form good habits early in life to ensure future success.
3. The committee will form a plan to address the issues raised during the meeting.
4. They aim to form a partnership that benefits both companies in the long run.
5. The novel's characters begin to form complex relationships as the plot unfolds.
6. The artist decided to form a new partnership with local galleries to promote her work.
7. In biology class, we learned how cells form the building blocks of life.
8. The committee will form a plan to address the community's concerns about safety.
9. She used clay to form a beautiful sculpture that captured the essence of nature.
10. During the meeting, they discussed the best strategies to form a successful team.
11. The artist decided to form a sculpture using recycled materials.
12. In order to maintain clarity, the document should be in a clear and concise form.
13. The team's ability to form strong connections was crucial to their success.
14. As the sun set, the shadows began to form long shapes across the ground.
15. She had a unique way of expressing herself, often using dance to form her emotions.
16. The artist decided to form a new collective to showcase their work.
17. In order to succeed in the competition, you must form a strong team with diverse skills.
18. The committee will meet next week to finalize the form of the new policy.
19. As the clay was molded, it began to take on a beautiful, intricate form.
20. She was eager to fill out the application form for the scholarship opportunity.
21. The artist decided to form a new collective to promote local talent.
22. A solid understanding of the rules is essential to form a successful strategy.
23. The structure of the building was designed to form a harmonious blend with its surroundings.

24. She needed to fill out a form before she could apply for the scholarship.
25. In nature, many creatures use camouflage to form a protective disguise against predators.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/form>