

FORMULATION

Meaning: Formulation refers to the process of creating a specific mixture or composition of ingredients to achieve desired properties or effects, particularly in pharmaceuticals or cosmetics.

1. The scientist was excited about the new formulation of the drug that promised better efficacy.
2. After extensive testing, the formulation of the skincare product was finally perfected.
3. Each teacher contributed to the formulation of a new curriculum to enhance student engagement.
4. The team worked tirelessly on the formulation of a strategic plan to address community concerns.
5. Her innovative formulation of the recipe included unexpected ingredients that delighted everyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/formulation>