

FORTIFICATION

Meaning: Fortification refers to a defensive structure or wall built to protect a place from attack.

1. The ancient city was renowned for its impressive fortification walls that had stood for centuries.
2. During the siege, the soldiers worked tirelessly to reinforce the fortification surrounding their camp.
3. The fortification of the castle included moats and drawbridges to deter potential attackers.
4. In modern times, fortification can refer to enhancing the nutritional value of food products.
5. The government invested heavily in the fortification of coastal defenses to protect against rising sea levels.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fortification>