

FORTRESS

Meaning: A fortress is a large, fortified building or complex designed for defense against attacks, often serving as a stronghold or military strongpoint.

1. The ancient fortress stood tall against the ravages of time.
2. Tourists flock to the fortress to admire its impressive architecture and rich history.
3. During the siege, the fortress became a symbol of resilience for the besieged inhabitants.
4. The fortress was strategically built on a hill to provide a commanding view of the surrounding land.
5. Legends spoke of hidden treasure within the fortress, drawing adventurers from far and wide.
6. The ancient fortress stood resilient against the test of time and nature.
7. During the siege, the soldiers took refuge within the fortress's thick stone walls.
8. Her determination was a fortress, shielding her from the doubts of others.
9. The fortress, perched atop the hill, offered a breathtaking view of the valley below.
10. Legends spoke of treasures hidden deep within the fortress's hidden chambers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fortress>