

FORWARDING

Meaning: Forwarding refers to the act of sending something, such as packages or information, to a different destination or recipient.

1. The company is forwarding the packages to ensure they arrive on time.
2. I received an email about forwarding my application to the hiring manager.
3. She is responsible for forwarding important updates to the entire team.
4. Forwarding the call to my voicemail was the best option at that moment.
5. He was praised for his skill in forwarding complex ideas clearly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/forwarding>