

FOSSILIFICATION

Meaning: Fossilification is the process by which organic material is gradually replaced by minerals over time, resulting in the formation of fossils.

1. Fossilification occurs over millions of years as organic material is gradually replaced by minerals.
2. The process of fossilification provides valuable insights into the Earth's prehistoric life.
3. Scientists study fossilification to understand the conditions that led to the preservation of ancient organisms.
4. Fossilification is essential for creating a record of biodiversity through geological time.
5. The intricate details preserved through fossilification can reveal much about the environment of the past.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fossilification>