

FOUNDATIONLESS

Meaning: Foundationless: lacking a solid basis or support; unfounded.

1. The argument presented in the debate was largely foundationless, lacking any solid evidence to support it.
2. Her fears about the future felt foundationless, as she had not considered the many possibilities that lay ahead.
3. The foundationless claims made by the conspiracy theorist were quickly dismissed by experts in the field.
4. Many critics pointed out that the novel's plot was foundationless, relying on coincidences rather than strong character development.
5. He realized that his feelings of inadequacy were foundationless, stemming from comparisons that didn't reflect his true worth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/foundationless>