

FOUTER

Meaning: FOUTER (noun): A person who acts dishonestly or deceitfully, particularly in a competitive or argumentative context.

1. The athlete was disqualified for being a fouter during the competition.
2. In a heated debate, he became a fouter, undermining his own arguments.
3. She dismissed the criticism as a fouter's attempt to distract from the main issue.
4. His reputation as a fouter made it difficult for him to find collaborators.
5. Rather than engaging constructively, he chose to be a fouter, sowing discord among his peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fouter>