

FOWLER

Meaning: Fowler: a person who hunts or traps wild birds, especially waterfowl.

1. The fowler quietly waited by the marsh, hoping to attract ducks.
2. In the early morning light, the fowler set out with his trusty dog by his side.
3. A skilled fowler knows the best techniques to lure in game while remaining unseen.
4. After a long day, the fowler returned home with a bountiful catch of waterfowl.
5. The local fowler shared stories of his adventures in the field with fellow enthusiasts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fowler>