

FRACTED

Meaning: Fracted: broken or shattered into pieces; also describes a voice that is interrupted or uneven due to strong emotion.

1. The glass was fracted after being dropped from the counter.
2. His voice became fracted with emotion as he spoke about his past.
3. The fracted landscape was a result of years of erosion and neglect.
4. She noticed the fracted edges of the paper, evidence of its rough handling.
5. In the debate, his arguments were fracted, lacking cohesion and clarity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fracted>