

FRACTIONATE

Meaning: To fractionate means to separate a mixture into its component parts based on differences in their physical or chemical properties.

1. In the lab, we will fractionate the mixture to isolate the desired compound.
2. The process to fractionate the oil allowed us to obtain different grades for various uses.
3. Scientists often use chromatography techniques to fractionate complex substances effectively.
4. To achieve a purer product, it is essential to fractionate the solution carefully.
5. The team worked tirelessly to fractionate the samples for their research on climate change.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fractionate>