

FRAGMENTED

Meaning: Fragmented: broken into separate parts or lacking coherence, often resulting in incomplete or disjointed understanding.

1. The fragmented nature of her memories made it difficult to piece together the events of that day.
2. His fragmented thoughts swirled around in his mind, making it hard to focus on any one idea.
3. The community was left feeling fragmented after the sudden closure of the local school.
4. As technology advanced, many argued that our social interactions had become increasingly fragmented.
5. The artist's work featured fragmented images that evoked a sense of disconnection and loss.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fragmented>