

FRAIL

Meaning: FRAIL: weak and delicate in physical strength or constitution.

1. The frail old man struggled to carry his groceries up the stairs.
2. Her frail frame seemed fragile against the backdrop of the stormy sea.
3. Despite his frail appearance, he possessed an indomitable spirit.
4. The plant was frail and needed extra care to survive the winter months.
5. She spoke in a frail whisper, barely audible above the noise of the crowd.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frail>