

FRAILNESS

Meaning: FRAILNESS: the quality of being physically weak or delicate, often due to age or illness.

1. The frailness of the elderly man was evident as he struggled to climb the stairs.
2. Despite her frailness, she possessed a fierce spirit that inspired those around her.
3. The frailness of the leaf made it vulnerable to the harsh winds of autumn.
4. In moments of reflection, he often pondered the frailness of human life and its fleeting nature.
5. She approached the task with caution, aware of the frailness of the materials she was using.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frailness>