

FRANGENT

Meaning: Frangent (adjective): having a strong, pleasant fragrance or scent.

1. The frangent scent of blooming jasmine filled the evening air.
2. As she walked through the garden, the frangent aroma of fresh roses enveloped her senses.
3. He recalled the frangent memories of summer days spent in his grandmother's orchard.
4. The frangent spices wafting from the kitchen made his mouth water in anticipation.
5. In the quiet forest, the frangent pine needles created a soothing atmosphere for reflection.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frangent>