

FRANGIPANE

Meaning: Frangipane is a sweet almond-flavored pastry cream made from ground almonds, sugar, butter, and eggs, often used as a filling in tarts and cakes.

1. The frangipane filling in the tart added a delightful almond flavor that complemented the fruit beautifully.
2. She baked a rich frangipane cake, topped with fresh raspberries and a dusting of powdered sugar.
3. At the bakery, the chef specialized in pastries filled with frangipane, attracting customers from all over town.
4. The classic French recipe called for a layer of frangipane beneath the sliced pears, creating a sumptuous dessert.
5. During the holiday season, my grandmother always made her famous frangipane pastries, which were a family favorite.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frangipane>