

FRANKNESS

Meaning: Frankness is the quality of being open, honest, and straightforward in communication.

1. Her frankness about the challenges they faced helped foster an atmosphere of trust within the team.
2. I appreciated his frankness during the meeting, as it encouraged everyone to speak openly about their concerns.
3. The artist's frankness in discussing her struggles made her work even more relatable to her audience.
4. In a world full of pretenses, his frankness was a refreshing change that sparked honest conversations.
5. She valued frankness over flattery, believing that honesty was essential for meaningful relationships.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frankness>