

FRAP

Meaning: Frap (noun): A blended beverage typically made with coffee, milk, ice, and flavorings, often topped with whipped cream.

1. The barista expertly prepared a caramel frap topped with whipped cream and a drizzle of syrup.
2. After a hot day at the beach, a refreshing mocha frap was just what she needed to cool down.
3. He decided to try making a homemade frap using his favorite coffee blend and some ice cream.
4. The café's new summer menu featured a delicious strawberry frap that quickly became a customer favorite.
5. She enjoyed sipping her vanilla frap while sitting on the patio, watching the world go by.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frap>