

FRATERNIZATION

Meaning: Fraternization refers to the social interaction or friendly relations between individuals from different groups, often leading to potential misunderstandings or conflicts.

1. Fraternization between soldiers and civilians can lead to misunderstandings and conflicts.
2. The company policy strictly prohibits fraternization between employees in different departments.
3. After the war, fraternization between former enemies was seen as a crucial step towards peace.
4. Fraternization among team members can enhance collaboration but may also lead to favoritism.
5. The coach warned the players about the risks of fraternization that could affect team dynamics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fraternization>