

FRATERNIZE

Meaning: Fraternize: to associate or form friendships with others, especially in a social or informal context.

1. During the conference, attendees were encouraged to fraternize and share their ideas with one another.
2. Despite the competitive atmosphere, the athletes found ways to fraternize and support each other off the field.
3. The soldiers were advised to avoid fraternizing with the local populace to maintain a professional distance.
4. After years of rivalry, the two companies decided to fraternize and collaborate on a community project.
5. In an effort to build camaraderie, the manager organized team-building activities that encouraged employees to fraternize.
6. During the long training exercises, the soldiers began to fraternize with the local civilians.
7. Despite their rivalry on the field, the players decided to fraternize after the match ended.
8. The company encouraged employees to fraternize at social events to build team camaraderie.
9. When she visited the foreign country, she made an effort to fraternize with the locals to learn about their culture.
10. It's important for leaders to fraternize with their team to foster a positive work environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fraternize>