

FRAUDULENCE

Meaning: Fraudulence refers to the act of deceiving others for personal gain, often involving dishonesty or trickery.

1. The investigation uncovered a web of fraudulence that had deceived thousands of investors.
2. Her reputation was tarnished when allegations of fraudulence surfaced during the trial.
3. The company implemented strict measures to prevent fraudulence in its financial reporting.
4. Detecting fraudulence requires a keen eye for discrepancies in documentation.
5. The rise of online shopping has led to an increase in fraudulence targeting unsuspecting consumers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fraudulence>