

FRAZZLE

Meaning: FRAZZLE (verb): to cause someone to feel exhausted, overwhelmed, or mentally strained due to stress or fatigue.

1. After a long day of meetings and deadlines, she felt completely frazzled.
2. The constant noise from the construction outside made it hard to concentrate, leaving him feeling frazzled by noon.
3. She tried to keep her composure, but the chaotic scene around her made her feel frazzled.
4. His frazzled appearance suggested he hadn't slept in days, a testament to his relentless work schedule.
5. Even a simple question from her friend made her feel frazzled as she struggled to find the right words.
6. After a long week of work, she felt completely frazzled and needed a break.
7. The child's constant questions left the teacher feeling frazzled by the end of the day.
8. Despite her efforts to remain calm, the chaotic situation began to frazzle her nerves.
9. He was frazzled by the unexpected delays and the pressure to meet the deadline.
10. In the midst of the frenzied crowd, she felt her composure start to frazzle away.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/frazzle>