

FREAK

Meaning: FREAK (noun): A person or thing that is markedly unusual or unconventional, or an unexpected and unusual event.

1. He's always been considered a bit of a freak for his unconventional taste in music.
2. The sudden storm caused a freak occurrence that left everyone in disbelief.
3. She's a fitness freak who spends every spare moment at the gym.
4. His freakish talent for painting astounded everyone at the gallery.
5. They thought it was a freak accident when the car flipped over on the highway.
6. The weather was so unpredictable that it felt like a freak occurrence for the middle of summer.
7. She was always a bit of a freak when it came to her collection of vintage vinyl records.
8. His freak accident left him with a story that would become legendary in their small town.
9. The movie featured a freak who possessed extraordinary abilities, captivating audiences across the globe.
10. Despite the criticism, he embraced his identity as a freak and encouraged others to do the same.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/freak>