

FRETFUL

Meaning: Fretful: feeling or expressing anxiety, worry, or restlessness.

1. The fretting mother paced the floor, her fretful thoughts racing as she waited for her child to return home.
2. After a long day at work, she felt too fretful to enjoy her evening plans.
3. His fretful expression revealed his anxiety about the upcoming exam.
4. The fretful child clung to his mother's leg, unsure of the unfamiliar surroundings.
5. Despite her fretful nature, she managed to pull off a successful presentation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fretful>